

Upstate New York LRIG, Inc.

Meeting Announcement

Hello,

We will be holding a meeting of the Upstate New York LRIG on June 25, 2007 in Albany, NY. (www.lab-robotics.org/upstate)

The theme of the meeting is getting to know one another in the immediate Albany area.

This will not be a formal vendor exhibition, however a limited number of tables will be available for literature, posters and static displays. We anticipate a relatively small meeting, with perhaps 50 or so attendees. There will be 6-8 speakers, each of whom will have about 15 minutes to speak. Each speaker has been asked to summarize their company, their customers and their automation. We have confirmed speakers from:

New York State Police Forensics Labs
Wadsworth Center, NYS Dept of Health
Taconic Labs
SUNYA Center for Functional Genomics
GE Global Research
Albany Molecular Research
Applied Robotics
Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

There may be an additional speaker from the.

Sponsors for this event will receive:

- Table space for literature and static displays on a first-come, first served basis
- Listing on the Upstate NY LRIG webpage
- Listing in the sponsorship handout to be given to all attendees
- Listing on the Thank You poster near the food table
- A verbal Thank You at the beginning of the event (for all sponsors, not by name)

Cost per sponsor: $100

Checks should be made out to “Upstate New York LRIG, Inc.”

And mailed to:

Michael P. Ryan
Wadsworth Center, New York State Department of Health
The Genomics Institute
465 Jordan Rd
Troy, NY 12180

Please register everyone from your company who will be attending so that we can have an accurate head-count for seating and refreshments. To register:

1. Go to www.lab-robotics.org and click on "meetings" in the left column.
2. Select "Upstate NY Chapter" and "register now".
